P4C Question: In order to develop children's critical thinking skills and to reflect on their own views and those of others, this week's P4C question is:

What makes you treasure something?

Please discuss this as a family, encouraging the children to think about this from different view points and to consider what is more important in life.

Rights Respecting:

RESPECTING

We continue our work on developing children's understanding of the following articles:

Article 2: The Convention applies to every child, regardless of race, colour, sex, language, place of birth, religion, politics, disability, and status.

Article 12: All children and young people have the right to give their opinion and for adults to listen and take them seriously.

Article 30: All children and young people have the right to practice their own culture, language and religion.

End of Year Reports-Friday 8th July 2022: You will receive your child's end of year report on Friday, along with related information and arrangements for class teachers for the coming year. Following receipt, if you have any comments/questions, please speak to the class teacher directly.

OFSTED report: On Monday you were sent our recent OFSTED inspection report. If you have not seen it, you can access it on our school website. I do hope that you will take time to read it.
